

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, hunger is an obstacle to millions of Americans in maintaining their dignity; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the community of Green Bay have joined their volunteer efforts with food establishments to help restore the self-worth of its people in need; and

WHEREAS, Paul's Pantry, since its inception in 1984, has distributed more than 125 million pounds of food to alleviate hunger in the Brown County community; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Brown County have given approximately 3.2 million volunteer hours to help feed its people in need; and

WHEREAS, more than 1.4 million free grocery food visits to people in need in Brown County since 1984 is a testament to its efforts to upgrade the quality of life of its community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Eric Genrich, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 16, 2020 as:

“WORLD FOOD DAY”

in the city of Green Bay and encourage all citizens to join me in contributing to the needs of Paul's Pantry as best we can, especially during this ongoing pandemic.

Dated at Green Bay, Wisconsin
this 16th day of October, 2020

Eric Genrich
Mayor of Green Bay
